

INTRODUCTION

1. The Dordogne :

The department of the Dordogne is called after the river the Dordogne, in the "Périgord Noir". This is one of the most beautiful and beloved regions of France. Between the rivers of the Dordogne and the Vézère the landscape is very beautiful. The countryside is hilly, with forests of oak, good agriculture and is dotted with sandstone houses. It has many beautiful views, with lovely historical towns like Sarlat and Domme and many impressive castles. It also has lots of historical caves, making the whole of this region a very attractive holiday area. Because of the mild climate you can enjoy your holiday from early spring until late autumn.

You can explore the region by foot (there are many walks to enjoy), by bicycle (the use of your gears will be necessary), by canoe on the Dordogne or the Vézère rivers (you can also swim and sunbathe) or just sightseeing by car. As far as eating is concerned, the Dordogne is famous for its local cooking with specialties like "foie gras", truffles and walnuts.

2. The campsite :

2.1. Environment :

The campsite "Le Temps de Vivre" (The Time of your Life) is situated in the centre of the "Périgord Noir", in the countryside and lies about 250 m above sea level. The area of the campsite is about 4,5 hectares in total.

Just outside at about 1500m is situated the small and delightful village of Salignac-Eyvigues offering its various shops and services :

The campsite is a small campsite with 50 tourism plots, renowned for its quietness, space and comfort, with a friendly family atmosphere.

The pitches are wide (minimum 100m²) and terraces separate some of them. All have electrical connections to European standards. Water is closed by. You will find a variety of trees and bushes often as a natural separation, which gives shadow at almost every pitch.

The recently innovated toilet block is centrally situated and also equipped for the disabled. The toilets are separated from the showers and washing facilities, which are all separately, enclosed. At the side of the toilet block you will find the washing-up and laundry facilities with free hot water.
